Blake Senet is an Associate in the Environmental Law and Land Use Practice Groups.

Blake focuses on Clean Water Act, CEQA, public-private partnership and real estate development matters. His experience includes drafting memoranda, pleadings, discovery and conducting legal research regarding environmental, construction and real estate issues.

Prior to joining Meyers Nave, Blake served as a full-time law clerk for the Metropolitan Water District where he conducted research related to CEQA matters, assisted with water transactions and worked on a variety of California Bay Delta issues. In addition, Blake was previously employed as a corporate analyst in the mergers and acquisitions group at a large law firm. During law school, Blake was a board member in the Real Estate Law Association and provided research for the Resnick Center for Food Law & Policy.
