Lindsay D'Andrea is a member of the Municipal and Special Districts Law Practice Group and the Transportation and Infrastructure Practice Group, where she draws on her diverse experience in public law to counsel clients on a wide range of issues affecting government agencies. Lindsay serves as Assistant City Attorney for the City of Walnut Creek and Assistant General Counsel for the Tri-Valley Transportation Council, Santa Cruz Regional Transportation Commission, South San Francisco Conference Center Authority and Sunol Smart Carpool Lane Authority. She also serves as supporting counsel to the Alameda County Transportation Commission and Ventura County Transportation Commission, as well as an advisor for the City of South San Francisco.

Lindsay has substantial experience and expertise in public contracts and procurement; land acquisition, disposition, and entitlement; the California Public Records Act; the Mitigation Fee Act, the Brown Act, and the California Environmental Quality Act.

She has advised her clients on updates of organizational documents, conflict of interest codes, and inter-agency agreements, including preparation of JPA and administrative code amendments, and form co-operative agreements.

Prior to joining Meyers Nave in 2014, Lindsay served as a Neighborhood Law Corps Attorney for the City of Oakland. In this role, Lindsay represented the City of Oakland on both active litigation and administrative matters.
