Yujin Chun is a Senior Associate in the Trial & Litigation Practice and Commercial Litigation Practice. Yujin is a litigator with experience representing clients from numerous industries, including healthcare, finance, real estate, technology, automobiles, and hospitality. She has handled litigation involving class actions, contractual disputes, trade secrets, and employment.

Yujin's comprehensive experience includes engaging in all stages of discovery, including taking and defending depositions, drafting and arguing dispositive and discovery motions, and conducting compliance interviews. She has also managed teams of attorneys and paralegals in representing businesses and individuals in litigation matters.

Yujin has engaged in trial, mediation, arbitration, and settlement proceedings. She has also conducted direct examination of client witnesses in arbitration and evidentiary hearings. Yujin has prepared and argued successful motions, ex parte applications, and other moving papers.

Yujin served as a Legal Extern to Hon. Suzanne H. Segal, Chief Magistrate Judge for the Central District. Her volunteer work includes working with the Legal Aid Society of Orange County representing and assisting low-income senior citizens with bankruptcy, limited conservatorship, federal forfeiture, social security, housing, veteran law, and elder abuse matters.
